AUSTRALIA DAY

Celebrations Well in Hand

The Shire President, Cr. A. W. Bond J.P., appeals to shopkeepers and organisations to fly the flag during Australia Day Week-end. Saturday, January 26, is the 175th anniversary of the landing in Australia of Governor Phillip, and the holiday will be observed on Monday.

Mr. H. C. Kim J.P., Secretary of the Altona Chamber of Commerce supports the President and requests that members of the Chamber also fly flags and install Australia Day motifs in their windows where possible.

Preparations are well in hand for the ceremonies to take place on this day. As announced in last weeks issue of the "Star," the feature of the day will be the re-enactment of Governor Phillip's landing and the naturalization ceremony. There will, in addition, be a procession and displays by various organizations including Marching Girls, St. John Ambulance, Pedal and Youth Clubs, and Choirs.

Cr. S. G. McIntosh has organised a visit to Altona of members of the Scottish Ex-Servicemen's Association Pipe Band to lead the street march, assist in the flag raising ceremony, and give a display after the naturali-

DROVE WITHOUT LICENCE

Anthony Borg, of Twyford-street, Williamstown, was charged with driving a car without being licensed, he pleaded guilty. He was also charged with failing to give his name and address after the accident to the owner of the property damaged, and with driving carelessly. He pleaded not guilty to the last two charges.

Robert John Trembath, service station attendant, of Seaview-crescent, Seaholme, said that at 2.15 p.m. on October 21, 1962, he was driving up Millers-road towards Footscray behind a morris minor. Just before Blackshaws-road the driver in front put out his hand to stop, then his hand out to turn right. He started to pass him on the left when the car turned left and hit him, forcing him into a post. He got out and asked the driver for his name and address but he kept saying, "It's your fault, it's your fault," and did not give him his name.

Maurice Abela, of Estelle-court, Altona, said he was in a car near the intersection. He saw a morris minor coming towards the corner, it slowed down and the driver put out his hand but he could not tell what the signal was. He overshot the corner and a station wagon was coming up behind him, and started to pass on the left when it turned left and they collided.

Const. G. Peck said he interviewed the defendant at the police station on October 26. Borg told him he was driving north in Millers-road. He was learning to drive but did not have a licence. His wife was beside him but she was not a driver either.

At Blackshaws-road he intended to make a left turn, gave a stop signal and commenced to turn when he heard a car coming on his left in the gravel and they collided. The other driver started to argue and he did not want to, and he did not hear him ask him for his name and address.

Mr. P. J. O'Connor said the defendant got the benefit of the doubt in driving carelessly and that information was dismissed. He fined him £5 on each of the other two charges and ordered him to pay £2/10/- costs.

MEDICAL OFFICER WARNS ON SUMMER VIRUS INFECTIONS

"If children were to be spared the risk of infection from gastro-enteritis, infantile diarrhoea, hepatitis, poliomyelitis and other virus diseases which were more severe during the summer, the strictest attention to hygiene in the home was essential," Dr. Leyden Medical Officer of Health to the Shire of Altona, said this week.

Dr. Leyden was commenting on recent advice given by Dr. Kevin Brennan, Chairman of the Health Commission.

"While people of all ages are prone to infection by these and other 'summer infections'; most admissions to hospitals are infants under two, and most fatal cases occur in this group.

Unfortunately the number of cases continues to be heavy each year, and summer is the period of greatest danger.

Dr. Leyden said, that the virus and bacteria responsible for 'summer infections' were spread from person to person and by flies. Medical science had not, with the exception of polio, found an effective counter.

"The best way to control these diseases is to prevent their spread, and it is an unfortunate fact that neglected personal hygiene, particularly after visiting the toilet is the prime source of infection."

Dr. Leyden recommended that everyone, particularly those in contact with young children, should follow the simply daily hygiene drill which was recommended by the Health Commission.

This was to:—

- Always wash your hands after visiting the toilet.
- Never handle food with dirty hands.
- Attack flies by denying them their breeding and feeding grounds—uncovered garbage cans, tack yard manure heaps, fowl pens etc.
- Prevent flies entering the home by using insect proof screenings on all windows and doors.
- Destroy those flies which enter the home; and
- Don't eat food or use utensils on, which flies have landed.

"If everyone follows these simple rules, the risk of infection, and the danger of children contracting these distressing and dangerous summer illnesses, can be greatly reduced," Dr. Leyden said.

EDITORIAL

FOUNDATION DAY, January 26, 1788

In the evening, when all the ships had anchored, the English Colours were displayed; and at the foot of the flag-staff His Majesty's Health and Success to the Settlement was drank by the Governor, many of the principal officers and private men who were present upon the occasion.

Such in brief is our main record of the founding of Australia 18 years after Captain Cook had landed on the shore of Botany Bay and hoisted the flag of his Mother Country. His discovery had been neglected, but now changing circumstances had forced Great Britain to seek a new destination for her transported convicts.

And so, on the above date the ships were those which had carried the first convicts and their guarding army corps. The Governor was Governor Phillip.

From such an inauspicious birth a great nation had sprung. The convicts are all but forgotten. It is unfortunate that our memory of Phillip and his early successors is becoming weaker. With all their faults they indeed played a worthy part in our history. There are others also to whom we owe much. Bass and Flinders, Hume and Hovell, Mitchell, Sturt, Eyre, Forrest—were explorers by sea and land. Batman, Faulkner, and the Henty's played their part in founding Victoria, and who would deny the part of Syme, Parkes, and Deakin in guiding our nation's destiny? These names are but typical of those who have gone before and each in their way made Australia a better place. There are many living today who are worthy successors. But let us at least revere these giants of the past.

Let us pause at this time to think on what they were, what for. Let us keep their vision for. Let us keep their vision splendid . . . Bright before our eyes.

Rotarians from far and wide will take part in this function.

Mr. Granger is a Past President of the Rotary Club of Bendigo, and has been a member of that Club since 1942. He is a Senior Active Member and formerly held the classification of Business Services-Public Accountant. He conducts his practice as a Chartered Accountant in Bendigo and northern Victoria, and is a partner in the pastoral business of Albert Bush Produce Stores of Bendigo. HOLIDAYS—SOME GOOD, SOME NOT SO GOOD

With the idea of seeing as much countryside as possible during their holiday, English migrants Mr. and Mrs. R. Bridger and children—Myra and Robert—kept on the move and travelled as far as Sydney. They are now looking forward to the next holiday for more sight-seeing.

After some trouble with his aqualung equipment, Mr. Harold Walker and his wife and daughters decided to leave the ocean at Barwon Heads and move to the home of Mrs. Walker's mother for the remainder of their holiday.

Wilson's Promontory was the holiday rendezvous for several Altona families during the Christmas holidays. Among those who came and went during three weeks of near perfect weather were Mr. and Mrs. Eric McCauley, and nephew Harold Benson of Hobart, Mr. and Mrs. Don McCauley and family, and Mr. and Mrs. Les Davies and sons.

Visitors for the day were Mr. and Mrs. Ron Bonehill who were holiday with friends at Inverloch.

Others who were not so fortunate in their choice of destination for a holiday were Mr. and Mrs. Fin Smith, and sons Ron and Jack and their families.

After their camp at Boundary Bend on the Murray River was flooded out they moved camp to Deniliquin but fate was against them and after gale force winds blew one of the tents away the family party decided that Altona was the best place after all and so returned home.

Another family who decided there is no place like home were Mr. and Mrs. George Grant and sons Russell and Bruce. Sand and winds drove them home from Barwon Heads.

bership of 526,500 Rotarians in 128 countries around the globe.

Wherever Rotary Clubs are located, President Fuqua asserted in discussing the Governor's visit their activities are similar to those of the Rotary Club of Altona, because they are based on the same general objectives—developing better understanding and fellowship among business and professional men, promoting community-betterment undertakings, raising the standards of business and professions, and fostering the advancement of goodwill, understanding and peace among all the peoples of the world.

Each year, this world-wide service organisation continues to grow in numbers and in strength, President Fuqua added.

ALTONA A.N.A. CRICKET CLUB

Both A Turf and B Turf suffered innings defeats in two day matches which ended last Saturday.

A TURF

Altona, winning the toss and batting, looked in a very sound position at 2/80, but collapsed to be all out for 110.

Ted Dunn captured six of the last eight wickets and finished with the figures of 6/37, including a hat-trick.

Norm Trickey top scored for Altona with 39. At stumps on the first day Newport A.N.A. were 3/87 with Ron Perks not out on 36. Newport declared at 9/234 on the second day with John McTaggart making 74. Terry Gray took four wickets at the cost of 53 runs.

Altona were dismissed in their second innings for 83, Bill Douglas making 28. Bill Hughes took 5/27 for Newport. This gave Newport an outright win by an innings.

B TURF

On a perfect batting wicket A.N.A. failed miserably to be all out for 38. The wreckers were Bill Allibon with 4/9 and Len Moore with 3/1. At one stage in R.S.L.'s first innings they were 3/2 but batted strongly to be 7/102 at stumps on the first day, largely due to Len Moore with 42 not out.

After 45 minutes play on the second day, R.S.L. declared at 9/154 after Len Moore had made 52 and Alan Baillie had taken 4/45 and Ralph Staples 4/38.

A.N.A. in their second innings, batted more determinedly and with a third wicket partnership of 52 seemed certain to make R.S.L. bat again but the last six wickets fell for only 38 runs.

Altona made a total of 107 with Paul Chandler and Brian Nicholson each getting 30, and N. Anthony taking 5/45 and Len Moore 4/16.

B Grade: V. Grant (13), 2 up, on a count back from C. Mathieson (16), 2 up.

C Grade: F. Johnstone (22), 4 up.

Sunday's Stroke resulted in J. Heil (5), Nett 69, winning from K. Lefevre (5), Nett 70, and a tie for third between J. Percy (23) and E. Mullins (24), both Nett 71.

Congratulations to R. Caithness and J. Greenwood in winning their first round of the Australian Foursome Shield.

YACHTING NOTES

Last Saturday saw the closest and best race this season in the Hornet class, when only 40 seconds separated the first three yachts to cross the finish line and only 37 seconds separated the first four yachts on corrected times.

In the Miscellaneous class there were three starters; two Moths, and a 12-ft. Catamaren. Tiki, sailed by Kathy Bradley, bottled on the first lap and withdrew, leaving Telstar (Ray Marion), and El Halcon (Les Miller) to battle on.

During the third lap El Halcon retired and Telstar, after sailing an excellent race, took both fastest time and first placing.

In the Hornet class it was undoubtedly the hardest and closest race this season. Repeatedly three and four yachts were rounding marks within seconds of each other.

After four laps Athene (John Bartlett and Alister Pirie) was first across the line followed 30 seconds later by Genesta (John Address and Sandra Koy), which was 10 seconds ahead of Jet (T. Jones and Coral Jones). Placings on corrected times were: 1st: Althea (Keith Wallwork and P. Jol); 2nd: Genesta; 3rd: Jet.

As this weekend is the A.N.A. weekend the club will once again be represented by a strong fleet of Hornets at the annual Regatta held by the Frankston Yacht Club.

There will be a general meeting in the Clubhouse this Friday (Jan. 25) at 8 p.m. All members are requested to attend.

CHARGE DISMISSED

Antoni D. Cassar, driver, of McIntosh-rd., Altona, was charged that on or about May 6, 1962, at Lot 52 The Highway, Altona, he did build a garage without a permit from the Shire of Altona.

Mr. J. Mellors, Health Inspector, told the Court The Highway now named McIntosh-rd.

R. Winder, Building Inspector, said that on May 6 he noted that a building was being erected on Lot 57, McIntosh-rd., which did not conform to the building regulations. He found out at the office that no permit had been issued. On May 21, 1962 Mrs. Cassar applied for permission to build a five roomed dwelling. He told her a building had been erected without a permit and asked her to tell her husband to visit him. He did so and on January 8, 1963, he saw defendant working on the property. Cassar maintained that he had permission to build a garage and that it was a store for timber. Mr. Winder examined it and found it fitted out for living quarters. Cassar asked Mr. Winder questions about other people building bungalows and garages without permits and was told by Mr. P. J. O'Connor S.M., that the only case he was interested in was the alleged charge against himself.

Cassar told the Court he had a permit before he started building. The permit was issued on May 21, though it was only for a five roomed dwelling with no mention of a garage. He said he did not own the block on May 6 and only started to build the garage on May 20, only one day before the permit.

Mrs. Mary Cassar, wife of the defendant, said she got the permit from the office and that on May 6 there was no building of any description on the block.

There was still none on June 3, only timber on the ground, because that was her daughter's birthday and she remembered it very well. She said her husband was mistaken when he said he started it on May 20. She said Mr. Mellors had been to see them about trenches they dug on the block and told them they would be getting into trouble.

Mr. P. J. O'Connor S.M., said the defendant got the benefit of the doubt and the information was dismissed.

ALTONA & DISTRICT DARTS LEAGUE

A delegates meeting of clubs in the Altona, Williamstown, and Laverton areas was held on Thursday, January 17, to establish a Darts League for the area.

Twelve delegates attended from the 15 clubs invited to this inaugural meeting and the basis laid for a very successful and much needed Darts League for the district.

The constitution of the Darts Association was accepted and will be circulated to all clubs in preparation for a full meeting of all darts players in the League to be held on Thursday, February 14.

It was also agreed that affiliation fee of each club to the League be £1 annually and each player must be registered by payment of a registration fee of 2/-.

A supply of registration slips are now available and will be circulated to all clubs. A club can register any number of players, although the actual team will consist of 6, and a club can enter two or more teams in the League.

The proprietors of "The Altona Star" have agreed to present a cup for annual competition, "The Altona Star Darts Cup."

It is anticipated the League will officially commence competition games at the end of February or early March.

Any club interested in joining this district Darts League are asked to contact the provisional secretary, Mr. G. Stirling, 21 Stirling Avenue, Seaholme, or at 65-8565 for further information.

All clubs and dart players are cordially invited to the League Membership meeting on Thursday, February 14, at 7.30 p.m. at Marion Hall, Seaholme.

TABLE TENNIS NOTES

Out at Altona Petrochemicals, modern industry and an active social league seems to breeze along in harmonious relationship.

There they have an excellent recreation set up, including canteen, kitchen, darts, hookey, chess quitois, and table tennis.

Leaders in the latter field are two veterans with wide administrative and practical skill, Alan Dyall and Stan Gleghorn, aided and abetted by E. Barnett, Peter Murphy, J. Donaldson, J. Debrott, D. Flaherty, J. Golden, and J. Bartlett.

Altona Petrochemicals have one team in B1 Grade, another in C1, and a third in D1. Their best player is Alan Dyall, a former member of Williamstown Swimming Club and Altona teams; Alan recently won the B Grade aggregate trophy for the most consistent player in Winter Pennant, 1962, and also was awarded the Robert Fleming trophy for outstanding sportsmanship.

Stan Gleghorn was originally on the staff of P.R.A. and a leading organiser in their social and table tennis activities.

COMPETITION MATCHES

Competition matches resume next week in the Summer Pennant. On Wednesday Grades C2, and D2 will swing into action, followed by B3, C3, and D3 on Thursday. On Friday, February 1, A Grade, B1, C1, and D1 will also recommence. Games will then be held weekly until the end of the end of the third round on March 1, followed by the semi-finals and finals on March 8 and 15.

WINTER PENNANT, 1963

As the Summer Pennant draws to its close, emphasis will turn to preparations for the forthcoming Winter Pennant competition. Last year, with the Centre at Garden Street, Williamstown providing a home ground for many new teams, 64 teams entered this pennant. With the experience gained from 1962, it seems likely that many more teams will compete in 1963, particularly as the facilities at the Centre become better known.

An invitation is therefore issued to all persons or players interested in table tennis to contact the Secretary (Mr. Len McWilliam) at the Centre, Williamstown, during the next few weeks. Alternatively, information may also be obtained from senior officers of the Association in Mr. Jack Wylie (65-6863) and Mr. Alby Walker (65-6835). Also on the promotional endeavor is new committeeman Bernard Moloney (66-9044) who is well known as a footballer for Yarraville and a cricketer at Footscray.

TIPS FOR TEENS

Q: I consider that beauty shops know all about permanents, so why have one at home?

A: Why not? Millions do! Home waving's easier than ever before. Just follow the simple directions. And while you are considering, have you ever considered how much money you can save? Money which can be used for frocks, LP albums and other extras. Have you ever considered the fun time you can save? What's more important, at home you get just the look you like, soft and natural, right from the very first day. Should you have similar hair problems, we hope the answer given will be of some help to you in overcoming them.

Drove Without a Licence

John William Wilde, of High Street, Newport, was charged that on October 10, 1962, he did drive without being licensed, that he did drive a car on a highway, such car not being in good mechanical order. He pleaded guilty. He was charged that he did by false statement or misrepresentation obtain the registration of a motor car. He pleaded not guilty to that charge.

Constable G. Peck sat that at 7.30 p.m. on October 10 he saw a car in Melbourne-road spluttering and it appeared to have a mechanical fault. Later he saw it being pushed off the road and spoke to the driver. He asked him if he had been driving it earlier. When he asked him his name, the driver said he was John James, of Sussex-street, Altona and his licence was at home. He said the car belonged to a John Wilde of Newport who did not have a licence. Asked again his name he said it was John Williams. Later he gave his correct name and address. He inspected the car and found it had three bald tyres, the steering was bad and the horn and wind-screen wipers did not work. Wilde later told him he did not give his correct name at first as he did not want to get caught because he did not have a licence. He was only 17 years old and was the registered owner of the car. On a later date he showed him a notice of acquisition and wilde admitted signing it.

Wilde said in the witness box he did not know what the paper was when he signed it. The manager of the car firm just asked him to sign it and he did not read it, nor did his boss who was with him. He knew you had to be 18 to have a licence but did not know you had to be 18 before you could own a car.

Mr. P. J. O'Connor, S.M., said he accepted his story and the third charge was dismissed. He fined him £5 on each of the other two charges.

AUSTRALIA'S FOUNDATION

EARLY HISTORY

On Monday next we commemorate the landing of Governor Phillip on January 26, 1788. There are, as well, other significant dates associated with the foundation of Australia. These, we believe, are important enough to re-capitulate.

BEFORE CAPTAIN COOK

Nearly 200 years before Captain Cook, Dutch from the Dutch East India Company explored part of the North Coast of Australia. In 1597 a map was published at Louvain showing roughly portions of the East and West Coasts.

This is how Australia was then known.

"The Australis Terra" is the most southern of all lands. It is separated from New Guinea by a narrow strait. Its shores are hitherto but little known, since after one storm and another, that country has been deserted, and seldom is the country visited, unless sailors are driven there by storms."

Later, various Dutch navigators made discoveries on the south and west coasts, notably Abel Tasman in 1642, and de Vlamingh in 1696. The only Englishman, William Dampier, visited the west coast in 1688 and 1699.

APRIL 29, 1770

Captain Cook landed at Botany Bay.

AUGUST 23, 1770

Captain Cook took possession of the eastern coast in the name of His Majesty George III.

JANUARY 26, 1788

Arrival of the first fleet at Botany Bay. As this place was not considered suitable the ships moved on to Sydney Cove. On the above date Governor Phillip took formal possession on behalf of the British Crown of about half the whole area of the continent, i.e. east of the 135th meridian. (In 1825 this was extended westward to the 129th meridian—the present Western Australian border.)

The territory was named New South Wales.

JUNE 14, 1825

Tasmania, or Van Dieman's Land as it was then called, separated from New South Wales to become a separate colony.

JUNE, 1829

All the territory west of the 129th meridian was constituted the Colony of West Australia.

AUGUST 15, 1834

South Australia was constituted out of part of which was originally New South Wales. Only portion of the present area was then transferred but in 1861 the remainder was added. In 1863 the Northern Territory was also transferred but in turn was passed to the Commonwealth of Australia in 1907.

JULY 1, 1851

Victoria, "Bounded on the north and north-west by a straight line drawn from Cape Howe to the nearest source of the River Murray and thence by the line of that river to the Eastern boundary of the Colony of South Australia", is the area transferred from New South Wales to become Victoria. As a fact, of course, Victoria had already made a sound start by 1835 commencing through the activities of the Henty brothers, Batman, Faulkner and others. Their earliest settlements were actually in defiance of the New South Wales Government.

JUNE 6, 1859

Queensland, the last of the Colonies, was deleted from New South Wales.

For several decades the Colonies progressed independently with various and fluctuating fortunes. Towards the end of the century the desire for Federation became strong. In 1898 the Draft Constitution was submitted to the electors in each State. It was accepted except in New South Wales and re-submitted in 1899 when New South Wales then agreed.

JULY 9, 1900

The Commonwealth of Australia Constitution Act was passed.

This is "The Constitution" often referred to. It, inter alia, "Originated the name Commonwealth of Australia and the various colonies became States. Incidentally a forgotten clause of the Constitution reads, "In reckoning the number of the people of the Commonwealth or a State or other part of the Commonwealth, aboriginal natives shall not be counted."

The Constitution was signed by Queen Victoria who in a proclamation dated September 17, 1900 designated January 1, 1901 as the official date constituting the Commonwealth of Australia.

JANUARY 1, 1901

Proclamation of the Commonwealth in Sydney.

MAY 9, 1901

First Federal Parliament was opened in Melbourne by the Duke of Cornwall and York (who later became George V), amid tremendous celebrations. It has been said that if the Commonwealth of Australia had its birthday on January 1, 1901, it had its baptism on May 9.

Between 1788 and 1901 was a time of hardships and set backs, of disillusionment and heart breaks, but also of fortitude and self-sacrifice and achievements. In that time were the epic journeys of Bass and Flinders, Wentworth, Sturt, Eyre, Stuart, and Bourke and Wills.

Our records tell how the Colonies became self-supporting, of the fluctuating fortunes of the squatters, the discovery of gold, of the growth of our cities and of a national spirit culminating in the Federation of the Commonwealth of Australia.

We feel that these dates will be of interest to all. At any rate they put into perhaps better perspective Australia Day and its significance. We close our list here.

The 20th Century is a new era.

LABOR VIEWS

The article below has been supplied by the Central Executive of the Australian Labor Party especially for the "Star." This column will be published weekly.

ONLY LABOR IS SINCERE

The Leader of the Country party, Sir Herbert Hyland, has taken exception to a statement made by the Assistant Secretary Country Organiser of the Australian Labor party, because he had the effrontery to say that the Country party paid only lip service to its avowed support for Decentralisation.

The facts clearly substantiate Mr. Poyser's claim.

The Country party is keeping in office the Bolte Government.

This Government has by far the worst record of any administration in the history of Victoria in regard to Decentralisation.

Hundreds of industries have ceased to exist during Bolte's period in office.

The number of new industries commenced outside a 50 mile radius of Melbourne is infinitesimal.

Members of the Country party are most vocal in country newspapers and from the platform at local meetings in their criticism of the Liberal Government.

They even make empty promises of what the Country party will achieve in the field of Decentralisation when they become the Government.

Their insincerity is easily seen when their record in contesting State Elections is examined.

Out of a total number of 66 State Assembly seats contested in 1961, the Country party nominated candidates in 15. Only nine were successful.

The Country party did not oppose the Premier, Mr. Bolte, in his rural seat of Hampden despite the full knowledge that the party led by Mr. Bolte was anti-decentralisation.

Labor's record in office stands second to none as far as decentralisation is concerned.

Its present leader, Mr. C. P. Stoneham, as Minister for Decentralisation in two Labor Governments, did more than any predecessor ever achieved in assisting industries to be established in country districts.

No Minister since has shown any real interest in this problem.

The Australian Labor party is the only party not controlled by sectional interests.

Sir Herbert Hyland's sincerity on decentralisation can be tested at any time he so desires to move for lack of confidence of the Bolte Government on this score.

It is certain that Bolte could be defeated and removed from office if this action was taken.

TIPS FOR TEENS

Teenagers naturally have many questions to ask about hair care. Here, from our mailbag, are some of the queries which are answered by hair and beauty consultant Shirley Douglas.

Q.: I have thin, baby-fine hair. I've tried teasing some shape into it but it just flops. Can you give me any help?

A.: You can back-comb until the cows come home but you can't get "flop-proof" shape without body. The soft home permanent type, that is. The "hidden body" in the home permanents give your hair a build up, to make it more shapeable with an added appearance of bulk that "fattens" thin corn-silk locks for a more-hair look.

Q.: I have a long skinny neck! What hairstyle can possibly look good on an emu?

A.: Let's start with what looks un-good for you, such as a short, curly style. Also dodge that scraped back or straight hanging hairdo. To lower a lofty neck wear your hair medium length, gently fluffed to glamorise that lean look. Try a good home perm and you can get enough soft feathery fluff to transform an emu into a swan.

Drove Unregistered Truck

Thomas John Furlong, of Thompsons-road, Norlane, was charged that he did drive a car that was not registered in Spotswood on September 7, 1962, that he did drive a car not insured and that after an accident occurred and the owner of damaged property was not present, did fail to report it to the nearest police station as soon as possible. He pleaded not guilty to the three charges.

Adam Matasca, truck driver, of door. He was going to park in Pinkerton-street, Melton, said he parked his truck outside 11 Raleigh-street, Spotswood, about 6 p.m. on September 7. The next morning he found his headlight gone and the front mudguard damaged on the driving side. He had noticed a truck parked near him.

First Const. D. Studley said he interviewed defendant at his home, which was then in Raleigh-street, Spotswood. He asked him if he was involved in an accident with a truck parked next door. Furlong said yes, but he did not report it to anybody. He knew the owner was away and intended to tell him on the Monday morning. He did not think it was serious enough to report it to the police. He made a statement which said he intended to park his truck in front of his home and found another truck parked next front of it and felt a slight bump and thought he may have tipped the other truck with his tray.

He found a piece of wood missing from his tray but did not examine the other one. He wanted to see the owner before reporting it to the police.

Police later found that Furlong's truck was not registered or carried any third party insurance on that night. Furlong said he had sent a cheque and the papers to the motor registration Board but they did not receive them. He thought he was covered on the night of the accident.

He was fined £5 for driving an unregistered truck with an additional penalty of £20 with £3 costs, £5 for having no third party insurance and £10 for failing to report the accident. He was granted a stay of 14 days.

There's no need to go into unpleasant details. 'It' is built outside and away from your home for obvious reasons... only one is the important consideration of protecting your family's health. FROZEN SUMMER DESSERTS

PREPARED BY MARY BLAKE,
HOME ECONOMIST

Always popular in summer, frozen desserts are delicious, and easy to prepare. Convenient too, because they can be prepared a few days before they are needed and give a light and cool ending to a meal.

For a really special occasion, the frozen loganberry sponge is ideal. You can use canned, or as they are in season, fresh cooked loganberries, for the fruit content. This is a good dessert to give the perfect finish to that special dinner party.

The velvet pineapple freeze is very rich and creamy, while the fruity tropical freeze, extremely simple to make, should prove especially popular, and is also nutritious.

In all these recipes you will notice that I have added lemon to the evaporated milk; this will help it to retain its stiff consistency.

VELVET PINEAPPLE FREEZE

- 2 eggs
- 2 tablespoons cornflour
- 1½ cups unsweetened pineapple juice
- 1½ cups sugar
- 1 cup evaporated milk diluted with 1 cup water
- 1 cup undiluted evaporated milk, chilled
- 2 tablespoons lemon juice

Set refrigerator at coldest point. Combine eggs, cornflour, pineapple juice, sugar and diluted evaporated milk. Cook in a double saucepan stirring until thickened and smooth. Chill thoroughly. Whip until very stiff. Fold into chilled pineapple custard and pour into refrigerator tray. Freeze until firm (about 2 hours). Makes six servings of smooth, creamy pineapple ice cream.

TROPICAL FREEZE

- 1 large can (14½ oz.) evaporated milk, chilled
- 1 cup lemon juice
- ½ cup castor sugar
- 1 x 6 oz. can frozen orange concentrate
- Pulp from 2 passionfruit

Set refrigerator at coldest point. Whip chilled evaporated milk until very stiff. Fold in sugar, orange concentrate, which has been softened, and passionfruit. Pour into two trays and place in freezing compartment. Freeze for two hours.

FROZEN LOGANBERRY SPONGE

- 2 refrigerator trays lined with sponge cake
- 1 can loganberries
- 1 cup water
- 1 dessertspoon gelatine
- 1 small can (6 oz.) evaporated milk, chilled
- 1 tablespoon lemon juice
- Whipped cream

Set refrigerator at coldest temperature. Line refrigerator trays with sponge. Combine gelatine, 1 cup loganberry juice and water in a saucepan and stir over low heat until dissolved. Cool and allow to partially set. Whip until frothy. Whip chilled evaporated milk until stiff and add lemon juice. Fold in jelly mixture and loganberries. Pile onto sponge and refrigerate for two hours. Cut into fingers and serve with whipped cream topped with walnuts. This amount makes two trays.

After Holiday Hair Care

So you have come home from your seaside holiday, and in spite of all possible care, your hair has a dry dull look.

Hair and beauty consultant Shirley Douglas, has some worthwhile tips to give on how to restore natural beauty to your hair before that all too soon deadline of returning to work.

If your hair has been exposed to salty sea air and hot sun, much of the natural oil has probably dried out of it.

To replace this, massage oil—I choose olive oil—into the scalp and then wear a turban of hot moist towelling for half an hour or so. This will allow the oil to penetrate right into the pores of the skin.

As most of us like to use the very last minute of holiday time, there is seldom time for a hair appointment before going back to work—and dull untidy hair will somewhat detract from the complimentary remarks about your suntan, so proudly displayed.

The home perm is the obvious answer to your back-to-work hair-do.

Select the home perm kit which has been designed for your particular hair type.

The kits on the market today come in three different strengths, gentle, regular and super. If your hair has been bleached by the summer sun, you would be wise to select the gentle kit at this time of the year.

Depending on how much time you have at your disposal, you can choose either a home perm with a speedy neutraliser or the slower self neutralising type.

Make sure you shampoo your hair thoroughly before perming it, especially if you have given it the oil treatment.

Set your hair in a simple style to suit your tanned outdoor appearance.

The oil will bring back the gleaming beauty to your hair and the home perm will give it the hidden body so necessary for any of today's hair styles.

These few hints can make all the difference to your first day back at work and give you that pose which comes from knowing that you have a trim well-groomed appearance.

"WALES" ASSISTS WITH MIGRANT SCHEME

The Bank of New South Wales has agreed to assist the Department of Immigration in the distribution of information in connection with a new sponsorship scheme to bring more skilled migrants to Australia.

The scheme, details of which were announced recently by the Minister for Immigration, Mr. Downer, would help to overcome the serious shortage of skilled workers which was now restricting production and development in many industries.

Under the scheme, sponsors in Australia could nominate friends or relatives in Britain and Europe who were skilled tradesmen in certain categories which included
